

One morning Tim was awake and Nile was still asleep. Tim said "wake up Nile!" Nile stretches and wakes up. Tim feels high energy. "I feel like playing Lego". He starts playing lego while Nile plays on the bunk bed.

Later

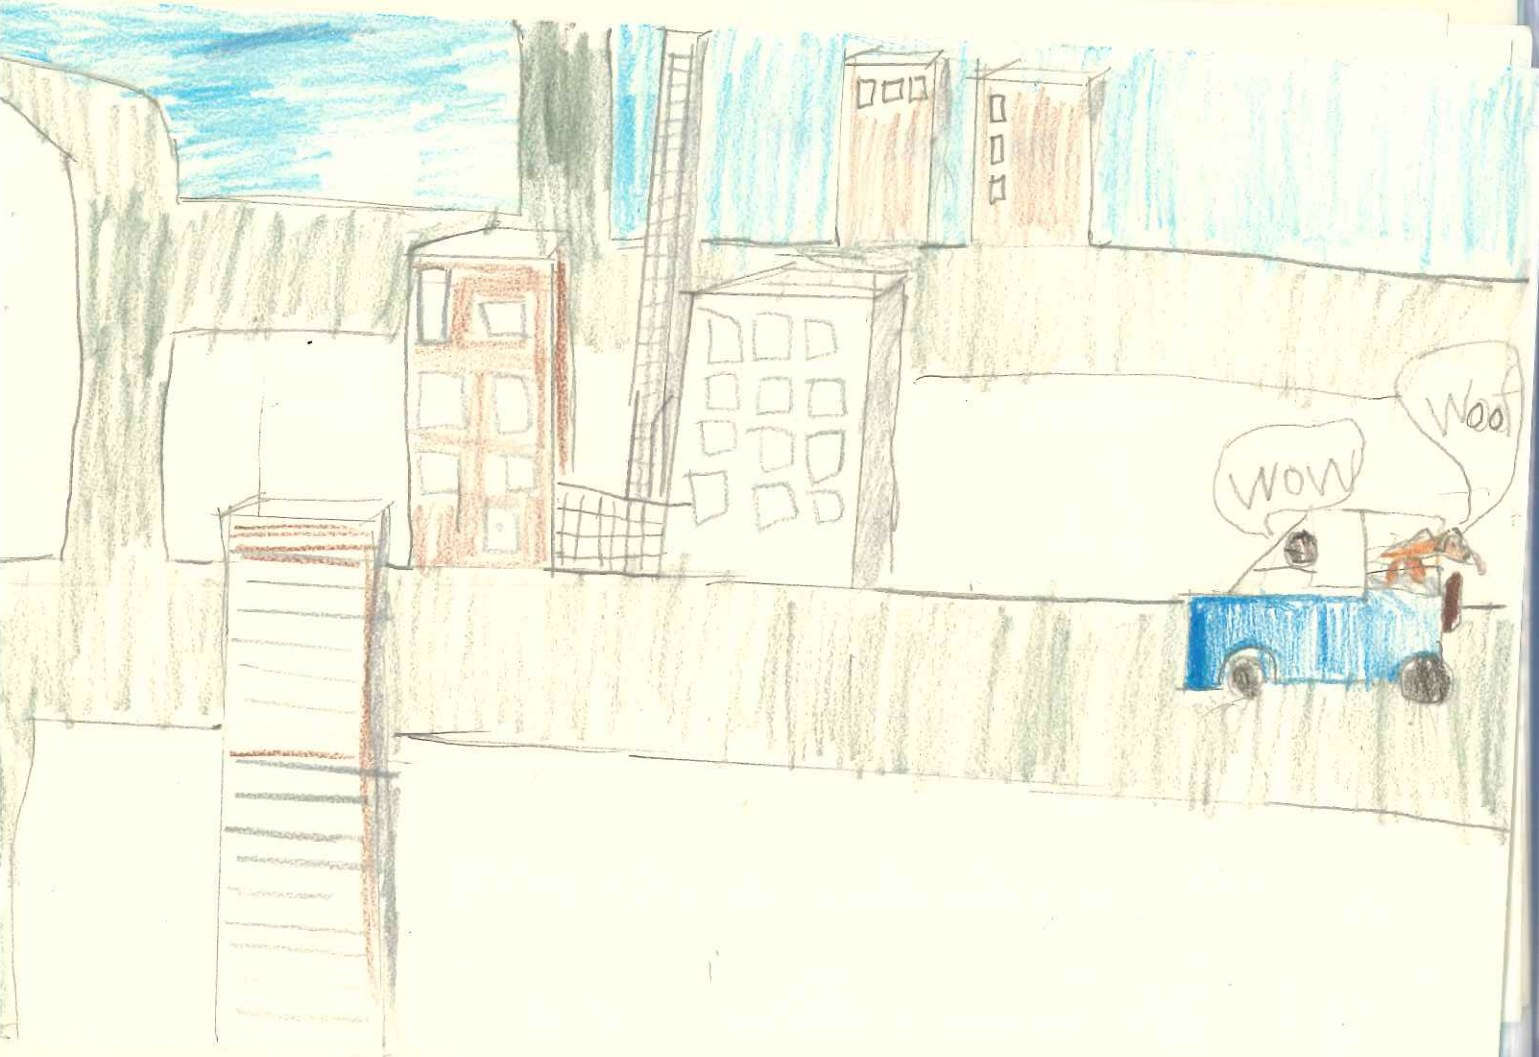

It is walk time. Tim and Nile head to the door. Then when Tim saw the tv he said "mom are you watching nat geo wild en?". Mom said "yes". Tim had a idea! "Mom can we borrow the phone", "We want to go to the zoo in the city" "yes!"

"Nile it is a 50 mint drive"

"Woof woof!" Nile is happy. Tim's mom was busy so Tim and Nile went to the zoo. Nile is sitting at the back so he can lie down. Tim is driving and listening to music with headphones.

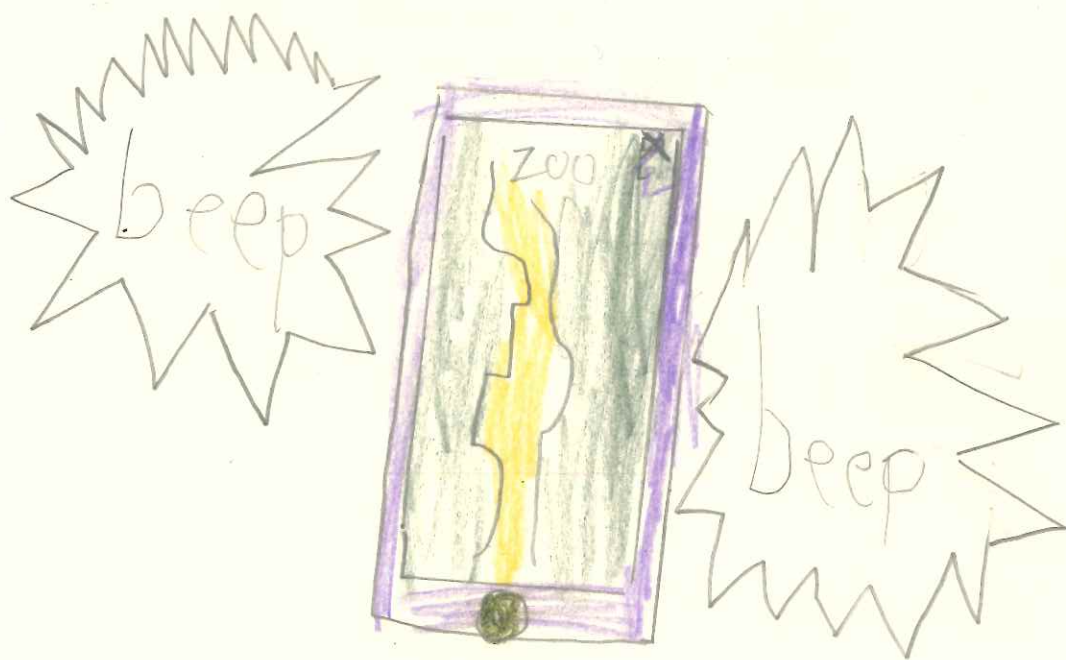

Tim and Mile reached the city! Tim said "this is amazing." Then Tim searched for direction to the zoo on the phone. The map comes up.

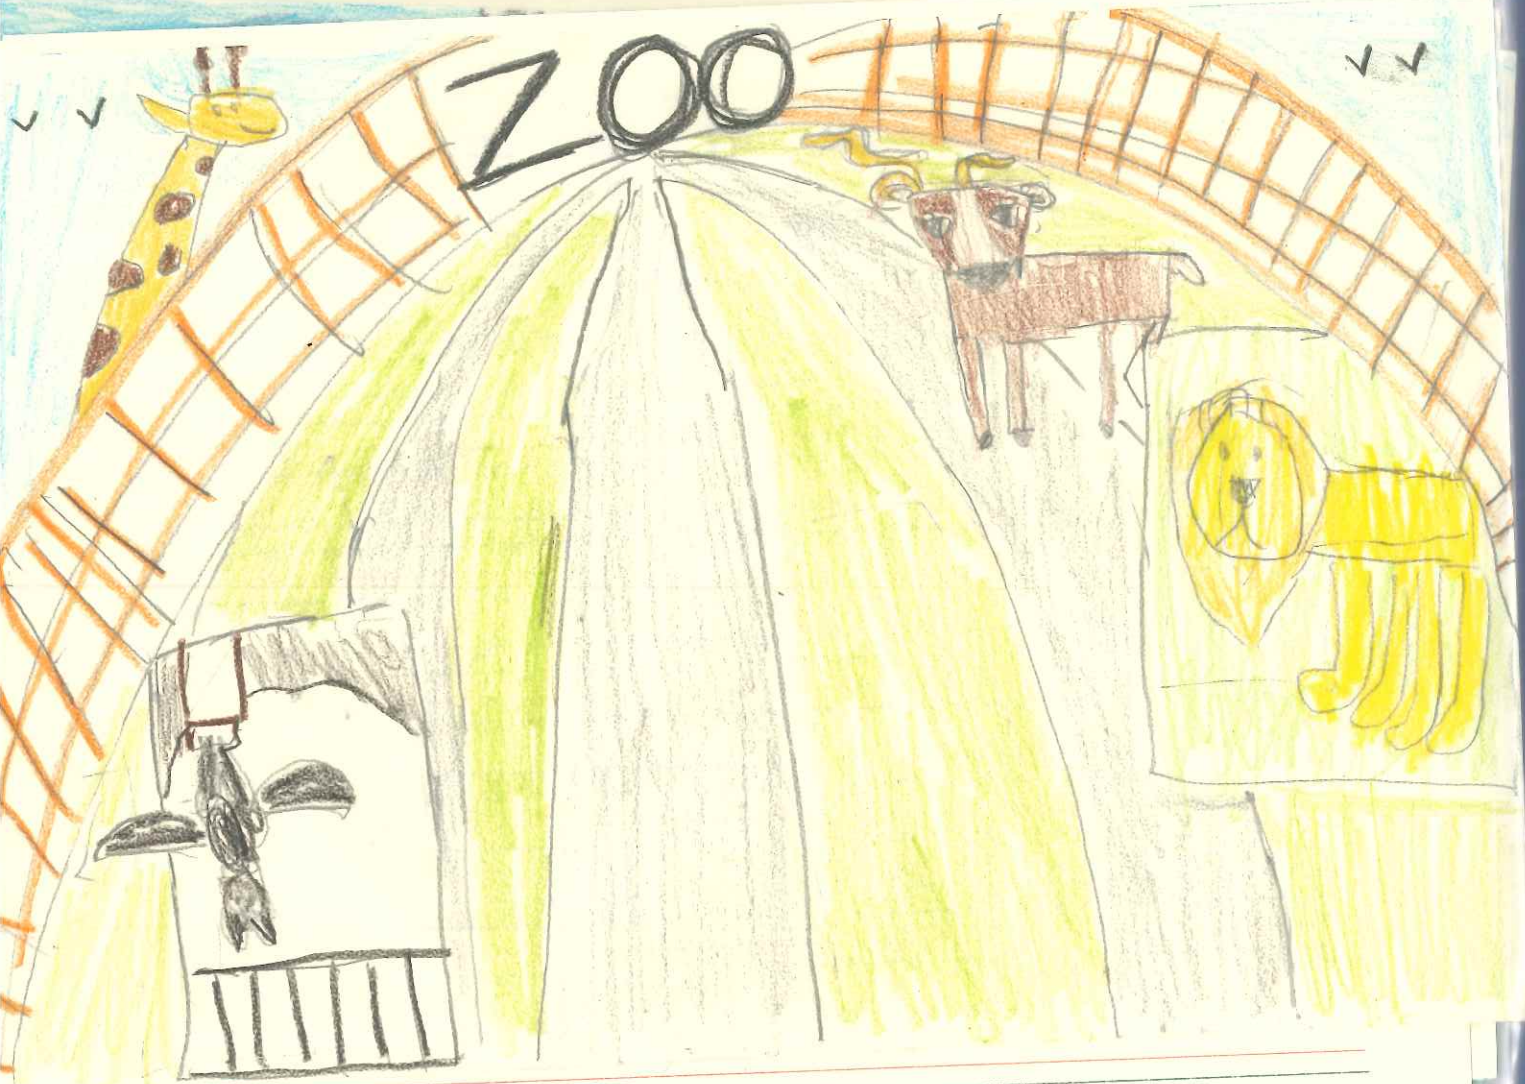

Tim sees a sign on the phone it said no battery

Tim said "oh no no battery. How are we going to reach the zoo?"

The phone shuts down. Tim said "what will we do now." Tim thinks of a paper map. Then Tim knew just the place. Then, he drives to the nearest bus stop. He was right. He got a paper map and followed it to the zoo!

When they got there Tim said "wow this is a big zoo!" Tim wondered "where should we start?" They walk around. The zoo has lions, bears, deers, bats and more. They start with the lion.

The lion is Tim's favorite animal. Tim and Nile reach the cage and see a young lion. This is the first time Tim sees a live lion. Then they see all the other animals. They happily drive home and Tim can't wait to tell mom about the city zoo.
